

WAL Hosts Rick Daskam Plein Air Oil Painter

The Watertown Art League will be hosting an oil painting demonstration by award winning artist, Rick Daskam, Monday June 13th at 7pm at the First Congregational Church Hall, 40 DeForest St. in Watertown. The demonstration is free and open to the public.

BIOGRAPHY: Rick Daskam's paintings have appeared in Art Galleries and Juried Exhibitions throughout the Connecticut and New York area. In 1998, he followed his passion of painting plein air, and spent his time painting landscapes and farms in the local area surrounding his home.

In 2002 Rick first visited Monhegan Island (Maine) and fell in love with its rugged beauty. Returning every year for a week of "sun up to sun down" painting, the artist has produced some of his most memorable works.

Rick makes his home in Southbury, CT with his wife Paula and their daughter Alex.

The Watertown Art League meets the second Monday of the month in April, May, June, September, October, and November. For more information about the demonstration call May at 203-574-2835 or visit www.walart.org/
